The grounds raised in the memo are that the Raffle is aid of the Charitable work, that the articles raffled are not costly ones, that the real intention is not to gain money but to attract the public to aid the charities and that the tickets will be sold only among friends & acquaintances.

In aid of Sini Ussa Mandiram library permission is stated to have been granted. A similar lottery as the one in question is held in Calcutta annually.

(The following)

10) "Crown & Anchor" was not permitted on the occasion of the charity fete - This differs from the present one; in that there people would be tempted to gamble with their money at "Crown & Anchor" whereas here they purchase tickets with the hope of getting a prize.

11) The license may perhaps be granted, on the precedent of Sini Ussa Mandiram charities

Sir,

We approached the S^t. Magistrate of Bangalore with a request to permit us to hold a private lottery with the object of raising funds to carry on our Charitable work. The S^t. Magistrate has declined to grant us permission, and we enclose a copy of his order for the information of the Government.

We would be greatly indebted to you if you will kindly obtain Government orders authorising the issue of the necessary license to enable us to hold a private lottery.

We enclose for the information of Government a sample ticket, proposed to be issued as soon as the holding of the Raffle is authorized. It will be seen therefrom that the prizes Raffled for are not costly ones, and it is more the Charitable nature of the Institution that will induce persons to purchase tickets rather than the hope of getting rich prizes. Our intention is to sell the Raffle tickets among our friends and acquaintances only.

I am, Sir,

Yours obedient Servant
